The Victoria Jazz Society is a nonprofit professional arts organization and registered charity committed to presenting the highest quality of jazz possible to our community. The VJS produces two major multi-day music festivals in the summer, TD Victoria International JazzFest and the Harbour Blues 'n Roots Festival, as well as a series of concerts from September to May, featuring international, national, and regional jazz artists.

The Victoria Jazz Society respectfully acknowledges the lək̓wəŋən peoples and their ancestors on whose traditional lands we present live music.
